Claim Objection under 37 CFR 1.75©

Claims 8,9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. It is improper for a claim to a formulation to depend from a use / method claim. Method claims should depend from formulation claims.

Claim Rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-9,12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481

Art Unit:

(Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 3-5,15,16 recite the broad recitation herbicides, carrier materials, microcapsule and combining ingredients, and the claims also recite preferred herbicides, preferred carrier materials, preferred microcapsules and preferred methods of combining respectively which are the narrower statements of the ranges/limitations.

4. Claims 1-9,12-16 provide for the use of a formulation, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 1-9,12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Although claims 8-9 are formulation claims, they depend from use claims. See claim 1. In claim 1 the term antagonistic interaction is mentioned. The examiner does know whether or not antagonistic interaction is a property of the instant formulation. The examiner does not know what the applicant is claiming. Please clarify in your response to this action.

Although claims 12-16 are process claims, they depend from use claims where no active step is made. The examiner does not know what the applicant is claiming. Please clarify in your response to this action.
